

Syllabus: Counseling 5 - College Success

Instructor: Pauline Clark

Office: Counseling, Room 16, (call 741-

- develop a Career Portfolio through self-assessment and research
- make connections between college classes and job success

Learning Climate:

Cooperative and experiential learning are based on two key concepts:

- You are responsible for your learning.
- You are expected to read all course material, participate in class exercises, critically analyze course content, reflect on your awareness through your writing assignments, and apply the concepts to your own personal experiences.
- If you have a Documented Learning Disability I am happy to arrange extra test time, or any other accommodation that you require, if your DESP counselor recommends it. If you suspect that you might have a learning problem, please let me know as soon as mind – to help you to gain the skills necessary to succeed in college and beyond. You may work ahead in your assignments. Late quizzes will not be accepted. One homework assignment is allowed to be late. Access to assignments will be closed at the end of each week with the exception of the MBTI reaction paper.

- Submitting Your Assignments: If you receive a message that I cannot open your